A dangerously good mix of sharp espresso and silky ice cream- the perfect cover for a scandalously sweet secret. The Secret Service of Tea and Treason by India Holton.

_____Wisteria Lavender Latte

A floral iced latte with a hint of rebellion. Lavendar and espresso meet polite chaos in this ladylike delight. The Wisteria Society of Lady Scoundrels by India Holton

_____Midnight Mocha Mist

Mysterious and moody, this iced mocha swirls with cherry and whispers of witchcraft and wit. The League of Gentlewomen Witches by India Holton

SECOND SATURDAY FLIGHTS

Featuring Fiction Inspired Sips

Learn about the stories & authors that inspired this month's flights!

Poseidon's Lemonade

⚡ Percy Jackson & the Olympians by Rick Riordan

A wildly popular fantasy series that follows Percy Jackson, a dyslexic twelve-year-old who discovers he's a demigod — the son of Poseidon. As he navigates Camp Half-Blood, monsters, and Greek gods in the modern world, Percy must learn to harness his powers and face ancient prophecies. Author Rick Riordan, a former middle school teacher, brings humor, heart, and mythology to life for readers of all ages.

Pilot's Cold Brew

✈️ Code Name Verity by Elizabeth Wein

Set during WWII, this gripping historical novel follows two young women — a British spy and a pilot — whose friendship is tested by war, secrets, and survival. Told in a layered narrative with breathtaking emotional depth, Code Name Verity explores courage, loyalty, and sacrifice. Elizabeth Wein blends meticulous research with brilliant storytelling in this unforgettable tale of wartime heroism.

Okay? Okay. Lotus

🌸 The Fault in Our Stars by John Green

In this poignant YA novel, two teens with cancer — Hazel and Augustus — meet in a support group and fall in love. Witty, heartbreaking, and deeply human, their story explores love, mortality, and the desire to leave a mark. John Green's bestselling book is known for its sharp dialogue and emotional resonance.

Big Hair Lemonade Float

🍷 Dumplin' by Julie Murphy

Willowdean "Dumplin'" Dickson is a self-proclaimed fat girl who enters her small town's beauty pageant to prove a point — and ends up starting a revolution. Set in Texas with a Dolly Parton soundtrack, this body-positive, heartwarming novel celebrates self-acceptance, friendship, and first love. Julie Murphy writes with humor and warmth that empowers readers of all sizes.

New York Cold Brew

🌻 The Sun is Also a Star by Nicola Yoon

This moving, one-day romance follows Natasha, a science-loving skeptic facing deportation, and Daniel, a poetic dreamer, as their lives collide in New York City. As they debate fate, science, and love, their connection deepens in unexpected ways. Nicola Yoon's lyrical novel explores immigration, identity, and the power of a single moment.

Mrs. Whatsit's Cream Cloud

🌈 A Wrinkle in Time by Madeleine L'Engle

A science-fantasy classic, A Wrinkle in Time follows Meg Murry as she travels through space and time to rescue her father from an evil force. Guided by three mysterious beings, Meg discovers the power of love, bravery, and individuality. Madeleine L'Engle's award-winning novel blends physics, philosophy, and heart in a tale for readers of all ages.

Cherry Valence Lemonade

🍒 The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton

Written by S.E. Hinton when she was just 16, this groundbreaking novel explores class conflict and teen identity through the eyes of Ponyboy Curtis, a "greaser" navigating loyalty, violence, and loss. Gritty yet compassionate, The Outsiders is a YA classic that revolutionized teen fiction and continues to resonate decades later.

Words & Cocoa

📖 The Book Thief by Markus Zusak

Narrated by Death, this haunting WWII novel tells the story of Liesel Meminger, a girl in Nazi Germany who steals books and finds solace in words. With lyrical prose and unforgettable characters, The Book Thief is a powerful meditation on love, loss, and the transformative power of storytelling. Markus Zusak crafts a novel both devastating and hopeful.

Sameness Lemonade

🏠 The Giver by Lois Lowry

In a seemingly perfect society without pain or choice, 12-year-old Jonas is selected to inherit the community's memories — both beautiful and brutal. As he discovers the truth about his world, he must decide whether to conform or fight for freedom. Lois Lowry's The Giver is a landmark dystopian novel that challenges readers to think critically about conformity, memory, and morality.

Harbor Cold Brew

🐙 Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt

This charming and emotional debut novel follows Tova, a grieving widow working at an aquarium, and Marcellus, a highly intelligent octopus who may hold the key to a decades-old mystery. Blending magical realism with gentle humor and deep empathy, Shelby Van Pelt's novel explores loneliness, connection, and second chances — with a tentacled twist.

And a Favorite Series of Lisa, Maile & Devin's

Espresso Espionage Float, Wisteria Lavendar Latte, & Midnight Mocha Mist

👱 Dangerous Damsels Series by India Holton

This delightfully chaotic historical-fantasy-romance series features sky-flying lady pirates (The Wisteria Society of Lady Scoundrels), rule-bound witches (The League of Gentlewomen Witches), and tea-loving spies (The Secret Service of Tea and Treason). India Holton masterfully blends wit, manners, magic, and mayhem in a genre-defying romp perfect for fans of romance and whimsy with explosions on the side.
